

SHAPING TOMORROW'S LEADERS

Quality education is the backbone of a thriving society. At Brooks Pierce, we believe in the power of a good education, and labor to serve the legal needs of educators and schools throughout North Carolina. We offer a broad range of services across multiple practice areas to comprehensively serve our clients.

Our services include:

General education counsel – we offer advice on daily issues, such as student discipline, employee policies and tenure, athletic programs, and First Amendment issues.

Real estate – we represent schools and universities on obtaining land, construction projects, and land usage.

Broadcasting – our attorneys represent college radio stations across the state with FCC compliance, tower leasing and registration, programming, and station acquisition.

Litigation – we are well-equipped to litigate a wide variety of matters, including employment, toxic torts, civil rights violations, and First Amendment violations.

Environmental – we handle all manner of environmental, health, and safety issues for schools and universities, ranging from indoor environmental quality issues and OSHA complaints to regulatory compliance and litigation matters.
