MY PRACTICE

NORTH CAROLINA BUSINESS COURT

As a former law clerk in the North Carolina Business Court, Ben has represented clients in dozens of matters in the Business Court and been involved in numerous other matters for clients of the firm. Ben avidly follows the opinions of the Court and regularly appears in its courtrooms.

COMPLEX BUSINESS LITIGATION

Ben has significant experience handling disputes involving complex legal and procedural issues, high stakes, high volumes of documents, case management issues, and often multiple venues. For example, Ben was involved in litigation related to a commercial development and interest rate swaps in Virginia that spawned lawsuits in federal courts in Virginia, Texas and New York.

FEDERAL LITIGATION

Ben has an active practice in the federal courts of North Carolina and has been involved in cases in federal courts throughout the east, southeast and south.

APPELLATE LITIGATION

Ben is experienced in coordinating appeals from inception to completion in state and federal courts.

CLOSELY HELD BUSINESS LITIGATION

Ben represents private companies, limited liability companies, limited partnerships and partnerships in disputes related to ownership, dissolution, rights and duties related to the management and operation of those businesses.

TAX LITIGATION

Ben has provided representation of individuals and entities in tax controversies against both federal and state tax authorities.
