MY PRACTICE

PUBLIC POLICY AND GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

Ed has a distinguished record of public service. He has served as Chief of Staff to both the Governor and Lt. Governor of North Carolina, as Special Assistant/Counsel to a United States Senator and as a national advisor to three presidential candidates.

Given his government experience, Ed represents clients before the executive branch, legislative branch and administrative agencies on a variety of matters. A significant part of his practice includes drafting legislation and building support for its enactment. He has been ranked by the North Carolina Center for Public Policy Research in the top 3 percent of all registered lobbyists in the state.

In his roles as an attorney and public policy leader, Ed has appeared on CNN, MSNBC, Fox, CSPAN, NPR and the BBC. He has also been quoted in the New York Times, the Washington Post and the Wall Street Journal.

MEDIA, COMMUNICATIONS AND TECHNOLOGY

Ed represents a variety of businesses in the fields of media, communications and technology. He spends much of his time advising tech companies on contracts, procurement and taxation, and served as state government counsel to the North Carolina Tech Association for more than 10 years. An active lobbyist, Ed works for policies that help grow technology jobs in North Carolina and across the nation.

HEALTH CARE

Ed counsels health care organizations on a variety of regulatory and legal issues, including legislation related to the industry. His practice includes representing companies that provide health insurance and services (both to individuals and correctional institutions) and companies that operate hospitals.

EDUCATION

Ed advises numerous clients in the education industry, including several businesses that provide technology and instructional content to educational institutions. His work focuses on legislative, regulatory and business issues related to education.
