Brooks Pierce attorney Jessi Thaller-Moran will speak at a complimentary business seminar for female entrepreneurs titled “Entrepreneur 101: A Legal & Financial Toolbox for Women Starting a Business” on Tuesday, Apr. 10, at the Frontier in RTP. Jessica Garcia, founder of BrainstormingWomen, LLC, is co-hosting the event with Brooks Pierce.

The seminar will provide practical steps that women can take when starting a business, including selecting and forming appropriate legal entities, funding their business, limiting personal and company liability, contracting with providers and employees and succession planning. The presentation will also address the complications that arise when entering into a business with friends and family members as partners.

The event will be held from 6:00pm to 7:00pm. Interested parties can find more information and sign up on the event's Facebook page.
