MY PRACTICE

COMPLEX BUSINESS LITIGATION

Andy represents individuals and companies from a variety of industries in business disputes, with a particular focus on litigation in the North Carolina Business Court. Andy has experience in matters including contract disputes, disputes regarding non-compete covenants and other restrictive covenants, class action litigation, franchisee/franchisor disputes, and unfair trade practices litigation.

NON-COMPETE LITIGATION

Andy advises clients with respect to non-compete, non-solicitation, and other restrictive covenants, and frequently represents both employers and employees in disputes regarding those covenants.

RAILROAD LITIGATION

Andy regularly represents railroads in both state and federal court litigation, including the defense of actions arising under the Federal Employers' Liability Act (FELA).
