Sara provides a range of estate and tax planning services. She works with clients to anticipate and address the various consequences of a death or disability and counsels family businesses in succession planning. Her practice also involves all aspects of federal income taxation.

MY PRACTICE

ESTATE PLANNING

Sara's experience at preparing comprehensive estate plans (including wills, trusts, durable powers of attorney and related documents), allows her to help each client develop an estate plan that is personalized to his or her needs. Sara regularly counsels families in developing and implementing multi-generational planning for the transfer of family businesses to younger generations with minimum gift, income and estate taxes.
