Brooks Pierce partner Jill Wilson has been named to The Business Journals' Influencers: Law, a national list of 100 attorneys and executives who have an impact on business and legal matters in communities across the nation. The list, which was created by editors and reporters across the American City Business Journals network of more than 40 publications, is intended to serve as a resource for entrepreneurs and companies looking to grow or expand.

Wilson represents numerous public school boards of education, private educational institutions, colleges and universities on a wide range of education issues and in litigation in state and federal trial and appellate courts. She also serves on the management committee for Brooks Pierce. She was one of only two Greensboro attorneys named to The Business Journals' list. Earlier this year she was selected by the Triad Business Journal as one of its 2018 Outstanding Women in Business.
