Brooks Pierce's mergers and acquisitions practice was awarded a Tier 3 ranking in North Carolina in the inaugural IFLR1000 state-specific rankings.

IFLR is the guide to the world's leading financial and corporate law firms, ranking the practice areas of mergers and acquisitions, restructuring and insolvency, banking and capital markets. This is the first year that IFLR has ranked U.S. law firms on a state level.

The IFLR1000 rankings are primarily based on transactional evidence, peer feedback and client feedback. More information on the ranking process can be found here.
