Brooks Pierce partner Will Quick has earned the Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States (CIPP/US) credential through the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP).

The IAPP provides a comprehensive global information privacy community for practitioners to develop and advance their careers. It also provides a wealth of resources to professionals and organizations seeking to manage and protect data.

The IAPP has developed a credentialing program in information privacy that is recognized worldwide, including the Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP). The CIPP/US is the preeminent professional certification for privacy practitioners advising businesses in the United States.

Quick works with clients of all sizes to craft comprehensive privacy programs that fit the unique needs of their business. He also works with clients to implement appropriate response measures and provide the required notices in the event that a data breach occurs. Quick was selected as one of the American Bar Association's 2019 On the Rise – Top 40 Young Lawyers. He has been recognized as a 2019 "Rising Star" by North Carolina Lawyers Weekly and was selected by his peers for inclusion in the Young Guns category in Business North Carolina's "Legal Elite" in 2019.
