SOLID SOLUTIONS FOR A COMPLEX CODE

The United States has one of the most complicated tax codes in the world, and the penalties for violating that code can be quite burdensome. Businesses and individuals need a trusted advisor to guide them through the complexities of tax laws and regulations.

The Brooks Pierce tax law team is made up of highly respected professionals with skill in all facets of tax law, and includes a CPA and former senior tax associate for Arthur Andersen, LLC, and a former tax specialist and litigator for the Office of Chief Counsel for the U.S. Treasury.

We bring this wealth of experience to bear in a multitude of varying business needs:

Corporate representation in tax planning and complex tax issues

Tax planning for privately-held and family-owned businesses, including implementation and preparation of estate plans to minimize the gift tax

Structuring business entities, including partnerships, LLCs, S corporations, and C corporations, for the most tax benefit and minimized liability

Advising businesses of all sizes on how to conduct transactions, such as mergers, acquisitions, liquidations, and joint ventures, in most tax effective way

Our attorneys also assist in dispute resolution. We represent both companies and individuals in disputes with the IRS and local and state taxing authorities. We also defend taxpayers in disputes over tax payments, levies, and audit penalties.

For non-profit organizations, our tax attorneys can provide valuable counsel for everything from entity formation to compliance with tax regulations to structuring philanthropic gifts to maximize tax benefits.
