

Brooks Pierce Attorneys Participate in Public Service Day

April 4, 2008

Subscribe to News and Insights

Via RSS

Via Email

The North Carolina Bar Association's first statewide Public Service Day was held Friday, April 4, 2008. More than 700 lawyers volunteered to provide free legal information at eight call centers statewide.

Brooks Pierce attorney Kearns Davis chaired the Greensboro call center hosted by WFMY News 2. Other Brooks Pierce attorneys participating included Jimmy Adams, Arty Bolick, John Buford, John Duberstein, Kathleen Gleason, Liz LaFollette, Phillip Long, Brian McMillan, Scott Meyers, David Neal, Jennifer Noble, Ben Norman, DJ O'Brien, Reid Phillips, John Small, Adam Tarleton, Howard Williams and Ed Winslow. Brooks Pierce paralegal Linda Marion helped register attorneys and coordinate this successful event.