Chris McClure, an experienced communications, lobbying and campaign professional, has joined North Carolina law firm Brooks, Pierce, McLendon, Humphrey & Leonard, LLP as a Government Relations & Policy Advisor.

McClure, a native of Haywood County, North Carolina and a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, spent 2012 as the Campaign Manager for new North Carolina Congressman Mark Meadows (R-11th CD).

McClure has held a number of leadership positions in campaigns and politics, including serving as the Executive Director of the North Carolina Republican Party and working for the campaigns of Presidential candidate and Texas Governor Rick Perry and North Carolina Congressman Patrick McHenry (R-10th CD). He also previously served as Communications and Government Affairs Coordinator for the N.C. Technology Association. He is not licensed to practice law.

Members of the Government Affairs practice at Brooks Pierce represent clients in a variety of industries including banking and finance, health care, economic development, education, environment, taxation, media, telecommunications, technology, and transportation.
