

Craig Schauer to Speak to NC State University Students on Free Speech Rights

September 18, 2015

Brooks Pierce attorney Craig Schauer has been invited by NC State University's Ratio Christi student organization to speak to students on October 5. He will speak about students' free speech rights on campus and what the university can and cannot do to limit their free expression.