

Frye, Johnson and Woosley Receive Power of Justice Awards

May 5, 2008

Brooks Pierce attorneys Henry Frye and Kyle Woosley were honored with Power of Justice awards at a banquet on April 21.

Brooks Pierce attorney Patrick Johnson was honored with a Power of Justice award at a banquet on May 5.

The awards were presented by the NC Bar Association and Business Leader magazine to outstanding members of the legal community in the Triad and Triangle. They were chosen for their dedication to the pursuit of justice in our society and for working to change lives with their efforts in the legal arena.
